Prior to joining Ironwood in 2019, I worked for Change Healthcare, a healthcare IT company, for 10 years in various corporate finance and financial planning roles. Prior to moving to Massachusetts for college, I grew up along the shores of Lake Michigan just north of Chicago but spent many summer vacations on the Cape. My wife, Jenna, and I (along with our black lab, Shelby) have been part-time residents of Great Harbors since Spring of 2018 and spend the rest of our time in our apartment in Boston. We have spent most of the past two years doing lots of home improvements. I am looking forward to becoming more involved with the Great Harbors community and spending many more summers on Half Moon Circle
